

Media Accreditation

1.

Applications must be submitted on line by January 24th 2017.

The organizer has the right to reject the applications that do not fulfill the admission requirements. The accreditation on site “last minute” will be allowed only for special cases at the incontestable discretion of the organizing committee.

2.

The accreditation card can be collected at the media center at “Alexander Girardi” congress hall starting at 10h on January 25th 2017.

3.

Accreditations may be handed out only after presenting a valid press card.

4.

Our capacity in the press office and in the media corrals in the finish area is limited. In order to offer the press the best possible conditions we can only accredit members of media that are related to the ski sport specifically or winter sports in general. We kindly ask you to provide the following details to allow us to further evaluate your request.

5.

Collecting the accreditation card the owner agree by tacit with the rules and the guide lines of the International Ski Federation (www.fisSKI.com). The Accreditation Card remains property of the LOC and can be withdrawn, with immediate effect, at the LOC’s sole discretion.

6.

Accreditation is not transferable and limited to the areas specifically identified. Furthermore, it is required that the badge be produced at each inspection point.

7.

The accreditation will be grant to maximum 2 people per headline.

8.

Accompanying people cannot be given accreditation without a specific mandate from the editor.

9.

Advertising, public relations agencies or similar companies will not be accredited as media, nor will the LOC issue any press accreditation to athletes managers, representatives (press officers or otherwise) of sponsors, suppliers, etc.

10.

Access to the course is governed by FIS Race Director. Stickers will be handed out upon request every day after the teams' captain meeting.

11.

Access to the slopes for photographers is governed by FIS and, therefore, the LOC will be unable to grant any access on its own. However, special photographer stands will be available in the finish area.

11.

Infront holds the world-wide multimedia rights to this event. Television and radio networks, production and Internet companies need to send the accreditation requests directly to Infront Italy for approval.
